

6516209660.txt

Please do not interfere with satellite radio service and it's traffic and weather reports. I drive long distances for my work and depend on the stability of the signal, accuracy of the reports and the frequency. Since this is a service that we PAY for we should have access to complete programming of our choice. As a result of the antiquated codes enforced by the FCC I have almost completely stopped supporting broadcast radio and television. I choose to pay for programs that I can relate to.